Services & Pricing Guide

Hello there!

I built this firm to inspire and support other minorities, with a focus on African Americans, in reaching their travel goals. After seeing the lack of diversity among international tourists, I decided to share both my experiences and extensive knowledge of the travel industry with the hope of getting more people that look like me the resources to explore the world.

I have traveled to over 35 countries, including studying abroad in the UK, volunteering to teach English in Malawi, and volunteering at an animal reserve in Zambia. Additionally, I took a six-month sabbatical to backpack through Europe and Asia.

As your consultant, I will use my ten years of travel experience to bring you the best experiences available.

Testimonials

Mynhan D.

Katrina has great expertise in finding cultural, fun, and engaging activities on the beat.

With my limited time and budget, she was able to create an itinerary with budget-friendly, and even some FREE activities. If it wasn't for Katrina I would have not been able to experience many of those activities. I never thought my low budget could be elevated this way with such low stress! Working with Katrina gave me a new perspective of Dubai and I am so stoked to work with Katrina on my next adventure!

Shannon N.

Katrina did a wonderful job helping me plan my first trip to Long Beach, CA. She helped me find the cheapest flights along with other travel accommodations. She also came up with a fun itinerary tailored to my interests for me & my friends to explore throughout the week. It was an amazing experience and she made my planning so easy. I can't wait for my next vacation!!!
